

Botswana's contemporary art scene is burgeoning with exciting emerging artists, as well as those who have been fundamental to its development since the time of the Medu Art Ensemble in the late 1970's to today. While styles of our local artists varying greatly, the artists selected for this review have been chosen in keeping with the examples of artwork shown in the interiors of FCB Zambia, while still allowing for us to showcase the diversity in expressions of our artists' cultural and personal influences.
